SWISS offers a third off child fares to Europe

Swiss International Air Lines has introduced a European child fare that is 33 per cent less than the standard adult fare.

The parent-pleasing reduction is available for children aged between two and 11 years on the date of departure on all economy and business class routes departing from the UK to Europe, excluding destinations in Switzerland.

Taxes, fees and other charges will still be applied to tickets for children as normal.

SWISS offers child fares from Manchester, Birmingham, London Heathrow and City airports to popular destinations such as

- Rome – from £120 incl. taxes (adult fare from £23 / child fare from £15)
- Prague - from £122 incl. taxes (adult fare £21 / child fare £16)
- Nice - from £127 incl. taxes (adult fare £21 / child fare £16)
- Budapest - from £136 incl. taxes (adult fare £39 / child fare £26)

Flights are via Zurich.
